

create your own portfolio website free of charge

open-output.org is the new portfolio platform for students in design and architecture

You know :output from the :output award (in which you have participated in the past).

Today :output launches its latest initiative: open-output.org open-output.org is an online platform where you as a student can create your own portfolio websites free of charge and benefit from the power of a large network.

We would like to invite you to be part of this network and join open-output.org to make your work visible to a large audience.
There are already more than 1.000 projects online and we are waiting for yours ...

To join open-output.org is very simple:
You go >here (<https://www.open-output.org/user/register>) to enter your personal data and open your account.

open :output opening special
All students who open an account until November 30 have the chance to win one of 15 Pantone formula guides or one of 15 subscriptions of "Greenpeace Magazin"!

A shortcut to the best of the best ... curated shows and editorial board open :output helps you to quickly find the most interesting projects from the top art schools and universities around the world.
On open-output.org we feature every 2nd week a selected university (feature school show) or ask students from one particular school to make their selection of outstanding projects (student choice show). Also you can find the best works from the :output award in the

":output hall of fame".

For the launch of open-output we present you:

Feature school: University of Fine Arts Berlin, Fons Hickmann

Student choice: School of Visual Arts, New York

Hall of Fame: The best work from the :output award 2009

About :output

open:output is made possible by the > :output FOUNDATION.
:output is a non-profit organisation based in Amsterdam. The goal of the foundation is to support young talents and provide a platform for the exchange of ideas on design education and the design profession.

Our mission:

Works carried out by students in design and architecture usually disappear into drawers after presentation to a relatively small college audience. There the work remains invisible.

We want to change that.

The power of the network more than getting your work online open :output makes your work seen. the platform gathers the most diverse projects from design and architecture schools around the world. By offering this unique collection open :output attracts thousands of visitors and makes your work seen by professionals, potential employers, university teachers and fellow students.

Non-commercial and fair

The use of open :output for students and visitors is 100% for free. Any revenues made through sponsorship or advertising flow back into projects of the :output foundation to foster talents, provide a platform for exchange and support design education worldwide.

We hope you like our new initiative open-output.org and are looking forward to see your work. Any comments and feedback from your side is very welcome. Please write us to: info@open-output.de
