

EuroLAB 2010

EuroLAB is a 10 days philosophy, art & design Lab in Spain.

In the breathtaking Mediterranean environment of the low Pyrenees, 24 students from several European Art Academies will come together.

By means of innovative brainstorming tools and traditional philosophical methods they will deal with burning questions considering major topics about life today and in the future. Art, design and philosophy play a great role in dealing with these questions.

Guided by philosopher Humberto Schwab and artist / teacher Rutger Emmelkamp they will develop innovative concepts and artistic forms to express and experience better life. Students will learn Socratic Dialogue, they will exercise collaborative intelligence and design future scenarios.

3 LABs coming up!

- 18th of January – 27th of January.
- 22nd of February – 3rd of March.
- 19th of April – 28th of April.

- Every student from every department is free to sign up.
- Costs are 250 € including flight, food and housing.

• For more information:

Join the EuroLAB presentation by Rutger Emmelkamp the 17th of November at 17 o'clock. Room 306.

r.emmelkamp@gmail.com
schwab@xs4all.nl